

INSPIRATIONAL Box Hill School

INDEPENDENT CO-EDUCATIONAL BOARDING & DAY SCHOOL FOR 425 PUPILS
AGED 11 -18

REQUIRED September 2018 or January 2019

Director of International Study Centre and International recruitment specialist

Box Hill School is a co-educational community of 425 girls and boys aged 11 to 18, whose educational ideals and practice are designed to get the best out of each student. The school follows the philosophy of Kurt Hahn, founder of Gordonstoun in Scotland: while placing academic work at the heart of a school, Hahn stressed the importance of an all-round education as a preparation for life. There are around 150 boarders who live on site.

We are seeking to appoint a well-qualified and experienced full time Director of our International Study Centre. This person will have the responsibility for developing and diversifying our range of programmes to appeal to international boarders from across the globe. The successful candidate will have as a large part of their remit the requirement to travel and recruit boarders to Box Hill School. It is envisaged that this will incorporate about one third of the commitment. The right candidate will have a clear vision of how to maximize boarding recruitment across the whole school and how to ensure that our International Study Centre is relevant for the marketplace.

We aim to appoint colleagues who will involve themselves whole-heartedly within our community and who see teaching as a way of life, not just a job.
